KLKT 107.9 LOCKHART

NEW EVENT CALENDAR PAGE ALERT!

You asked and we listened! The Events calendar now has an easier to read layout. Event listings are provided to KLKT by David and Josie, founders of Lockhart Magazine, launched on April 4, 2021 - just as the world was coming back from isolation. Craving connection and feeling the buzz of fresh energy in Lockhart, they began sharing the vibe on Instagram, like a mini digital mag. From the start, they wanted the spotlight on the people, places, and passions that make our town unique. They're here to celebrate, uplift, and give back and are excited to partner with KLKT in sharing what's happening around town! Follow along @LockhartMagazine

VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH - PEABODY AND JONES

Peabody and Jones are very involved in the Lockhart community, IYKYK

Five Questions with Peabody and Jones

What do you like best about volunteering at KLKT? We love the creation aspect of being involved in KLKT. Since it's a nascent organization, it's easy to see how each and every contribution matters. Every show we plan out and bring to life on air, every time we table and get to inform Lockhartians they have a local station, every sustaining membership and one-time donation we help to bring into the station... they're all helping to build something that could outlast us all if we do it right. That's genuinely inspiring to us. And to top it off, our show provides us with a way to stay connected to family and friends every week. Win/Win!!

How would you describe your program to someone who has never listened to it? Blue Plate Special is driven by an ever-changing weekly theme, just as the “blue plate specials” in diners of yore changed daily based on whatever they had an abundance of in the kitchen. The possibilities are endless! But whatever the theme, the weekly Plate always includes variety and covers multiple genres.

What is your favorite KLKT program? Our Saturday morning show neighbors, Lion's Radio. We really enjoy walking into the studio and interacting with O'Dell and the talented high school students. The regulars—the Tejano Kid, Benjamin, and Judah—have all grown so much in such a short time, each have their own unique D.J. style and musical taste.

Can you share your favorite music memory? For both of us, our love of music started with a grandparent. For Peabody, listening to the radio in her Grammie's kitchen and wearing costumes of Grammie's scarves and old petticoats fully immersed in the music and in each other. Jones recalls weekends with his grandparents, on Saturdays, “Granddad would fire up the grill for dinner and pull out his mandolin to play while grilling” and singing along with his sister to every song.

Anything else you would like to share? There is something for everyone on KLKT! Of course, we hope you'll join us for Blue Plate Special Saturdays at noon—it's always a feast for your ears!
